Awards & Honors

Honor Troupe Entry • Must be a current ITS Thespian Troupe. • Due 1st Week in March

Each year Oregon Thespians recognizes as many as three schools for their extraordinary achievements in the theatre arts as Honor Troupes. Selection of Honor Troupes is made by a panel of independent judges not directly involved in Thespians, but with experience either in theatre education or theatre performance, or both. Judges base their selections entirely on the Honor Troupe application prepared by the troupe. Points are awarded for extraordinary involvement in the school, the community, and in the production season relative to the school. Each school is scored based on their own involvement relative to the community which they serve. Troupes are not compared to each other.

Please submit the following information, typed, and with no specific reference to your school. Submit with your conference registration form. Entries will be given a code by the State Director to ensure anonymity and given to the judges prior to the Conference. The judges will select as many as three troupes to be honored. Please tell us a bit about your year…

- Identify what Oregon State Thespian events your troupe attended or participated in this year.
- Share your troupe involvement in your school (activity days, social activities, homecoming, etc…)
- Share with us your production season, both curricular and extra-curricular.
- Share your troupe involvement in your community (service projects, fund raisers, field trips, etc…)
- Share any interesting, unique or outstanding theatre experiences or projects your troupe had this past year.
- How many years of continuous affiliation with ITS have you had?

The Melba Day Sparks Award Nomination Criteria • Honoring Oregon Adults.

The Melba Day Sparks Award honors both Thespian and non-Thespian adults who have made exceptional contributions to the growth of theatre and theatre education in Oregon. It is Oregon's Theatre Educator's Hall of Fame. The award is given each year at the conclusion of the State Conference. Honorees are nominated by their peers, other adults familiar with the nominee, or by the nominee's students and sent to a screening committee made up of past honorees. If there are no nominations the committee will seek out potential honorees. Use the following criteria to nominate someone deserving that you know. Deadline 1st Week in March.
